Schoolwork

English

Poem:

Practice my five senses poem. If your child is comfortable with this poem you can add some actions to match the words.

Name body parts:

Ask your child to name and point to body parts. Let your child draw their own body.

Auditory discrimination:

Read the list of words to your child and ask them if the two words are the same or not the same:

- Ten men
- Two shoe
- Me me
- But shut
- Go slow
- Bend send
- Pen pen

Mathematics

Mass:

Give your child two objects and ask them which one is heavier. For example: a brick and a feather. Do this with several different objects.

Life Skills

Create in 3D:

Give your child a range of materials like boxes, egg cartons, toilet rolls. Let them use these materials to create their own 3D model.

General:

- My own story
- Beginning sounds

Kind Regards,

Grade R Educators

Use this template as pages of a book. Let your child make up their own story with a beginning, middle and end.

Colour the pictures that start with the 'a' sound. Discuss these pictures with your child.

Beginning Sounds

Color the pictures that begin with the A sound.
